Expense Variance and Commentary

The two highest expenses are associated with Jessica Gross for Project Kestrel, totaling AUD 9,494.00, both of which were rejected. This indicates a potential review or dispute regarding these expenses. The pending expenses for Joel Williams and Michael Powell, totaling AUD 12,582.00, are awaiting approval, and their categorization as office supplies suggests ongoing procurement activities.

The approved expenses for Megan Orr related to Project Yukon amount to AUD 6,510.00, reflecting recognized and authorized expenditures within the department.

Conclusion

The Data & Analytics department's recent expenses demonstrate a diverse expenditure profile, with significant pending and rejected items. The department continues to manage expenses aligned with project needs, with particular attention required for the rejected expenses associated with Jessica Gross. Further review and approval processes are recommended to ensure budget adherence and proper expense management.
